Nutrition security: a workshop about the Parma Experience
Thursday May 31st
Aula Magna, University of Parma

In the framework of the activities anticipating the official launch of The School of Advanced Studies on Food and Nutrition, and within the activities of the Food Project, it is our pleasure to invite you to a unique event gathering together some of the most significant projects where members of our University are involved in the field of nutrition security.

PROGRAMME

9.00 Welcome to the audience – Prof. Paolo Andrei (Chancellor of the University of Parma), Prof. Erasmo Neviani (Food Project, University of Parma), Prof. Simonetta Anna Valenti (Vice Chancellor, International Affairs, University of Parma), Prof. Daniele Del Rio (School for Advanced Studies in Food and Nutrition, University of Parma).

9.30 The NNEdPro-GODAN stepladder approach: from global food security to nutritional health – Prof. Shumone Ray (Need for Nutrition Education and Innovation Programme (NNEdPro) Founding Chair, Governing Body Fellow, Wolfson College, University of Cambridge, UK).

10.00 An experience from the Benedictine Monastery of Mvimwa, Tanzania - Tiziana Bernardi – President of Golfini Rossi onlus.

10.30 Coffee break

11.00 The mères lumière experience in Burundi – Dr.ssa Silvia Marchelli Parmaalimenta onlus.

11.30 From emergency nutrition to a tailored IT app: the “Pappa di Parma” evolution – Prof Francesca Scazzina, Department of Food and Drugs, University of Parma.

12.00 Roundtable and open active discussion (Chairman: Prof. Nadia Monacelli, Centro Universitario di Cooperazione Internazionale, University of Parma).

12.30 Closing Remarks – Prof. Daniele Del Rio.